

Regarding #2 the entire seat immediately behind the child.....
Please consider a "size of child" stipulation possibly stating that k-1 or 2 students could sit directly behind the child restraint system. I understand the need to change this regulation however such a change will cause financial burden to districts and communities because it will become necessary to increase transportation vehicles. Thank you for your consideration.